Rodger K. Metzger, CFA

President, Chief Investment Officer
Investment Advisory

As President and Chief Investment Officer of Hooker & Holcombe's Investment Advisory Group, Rodger leads the team of professionals who furnish advisory services. He serves as client relationship consultant for the group's largest and most sophisticated clients, is responsible for directing the asset allocation and fund research efforts and is the chairman of the Investment Committee. Rodger's investment and institutional money management expertise brings an increased sophistication to the fund selection and monitoring process.

Prior to joining the firm, Rodger was with Hartford Investment Management Company, a subsidiary of Hartford Financial Services Corporation (HIG), where he was vice president and equity portfolio manager.

Rodger earned a bachelor of arts in economics from St. Lawrence University and a master's in business administration with a concentration in finance from the University of Hartford. He earned his Charter from the CFA Institute in 1994.

Rodger serves as an Advisory Council member for Legg Mason Client Solutions, in addition to memberships with the CFA Institute and CFA Society of Hartford. He also devotes his time as a consultant or board member for various organizations in Connecticut.
